

The Indiana telephone privacy law has been very successful. My wife and I are both regularly on call, for her work as a nurse, and mine as a magistrate. We must answer the phone even if caller ID doesn't reveal the identity of a caller. Please do not weaken the Indiana telephone privacy law.